

Equal Opportunity Policy

The Company's aim is to ensure that all of its employees and job applicants are treated irrespective of disability, race, colour, religion, nationality, ethnic, origin, age, sex, sexual orientation or marital status. The Company shall appoint, train, develop and promote on the basis of merit and ability.

All employees have a duty, both morally and legally, not to discriminate against individuals. This means that there shall be no discrimination on account of disability, race, colour, religion, nationality, ethnic, origin, age, sex, sexual orientation or marital status. Employees have a personal responsibility for practical application of the Company's Equal Opportunities Policy which extends to the treatment of members of the public employees.

Managers and Directors who are involved in the recruitment, selection, promotion and training of employees have a special responsibility for the practical, application of the Company's Equal Opportunities Policy.

The grievance procedure is available to any employee who believes they may have been unfairly discriminated against.

Disciplinary action under the disciplinary procedure shall be taken against any employee who is found to have committed an act of unlawful discrimination, Discriminatory conduct and sexual or racial harassment shall be regarded as gross misconduct.

The Company constantly monitors its policy performance and implements any appropriate improvements.

Signature:

Position: Technical Director

Review Date: 7th January 2022